Raleigh, NC lawyer John Curtis & his wife Mary Shaw had four daughters, Burchet KING Ann MYATT Martha "Patsey" RAND & Mary "Polley" VINSON

The girls were reared & married in Wake County, NC but in 1826, they ALL--including their husbands & children--relocated to Alabama's Tennessee River Valley. They all settled in what is now Colbert County.

These brunette, opinionated sisters--who gave their father grief & often--were close, and they often named their children after the sisters.

For their descendants, it was not unheard of for cousins to marry cousins. Sometimes its hard to keep up with the family, given all those crossed connections!

This descendant tree starts with AUNT BURCHET CURTIS KING & her husband HARTWELL RICHARD KING
